Re: United States v. Parrello, et al.,
S1 16 Cr. 522 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

The Government respectfully submits this letter in response to the Court's order of March 17, 2017 (the "March 17 Order") regarding a letter filed by Jerry Capeci (the "Capeci Letter"). In the Order, the Court directed the Government to address two issues: (1) whether Capeci should be allowed to intervene in the above-captioned criminal case, and (2) the need to seal the Government's letter of March 8, 2017 (the "Letter").

With respect to the first issue, the Government agrees that, under Second Circuit precedent, Capeci has a right to intervene in the pending criminal case to assert a First Amendment claim. While "[t]he Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure make no reference to a motion to intervene in a criminal case," the Second Circuit has explained that "a motion to intervene to assert the public's First Amendment right of access to criminal proceedings is proper." United States v. Aref, 533 F.3d 72, 81 (2d Cir. 2008); see also In re N.Y. Times Co., 828 F.2d 110, 113 (2d Cir. 1987).
